

Cy Williams Socks Homer Into Broad Street That Breaks Up Great Hurling Duel in 12th Inning

7 TITLE PRIZES IN BOSTON TENNIS

Many National Crowns at Stake—Tilden and Mrs. Mallory in Mixed Doubles

KINSEY BROTHERS ADVANCE

Boston, Aug. 23.—The Longwood Cricketers Club today had to divide tournament tennis play between its courts at Chestnut Hill and Longwood, with seven national title competitions to play within the week and an inter-club singles tournament for women under way.

On the grass at Chestnut Hill this afternoon the second and third rounds of the national men's doubles title play and the first round of the National mixed doubles championship occupied the courts. In the former tournament, the Davis cup team combination of Williams and Washburn were paired against R. N. Dana and C. K. Shaw.

The team of Tilden and Richards, revived after a two-year lapse, met H. C. Johnson and G. P. Gardner, Jr., and the Kinsey brothers were opposed by J. B. Gilbert and A. Yencken, a British combination.

The mixed doubles draw found Tilden and Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory matched with Miss Edith Sigoorney and N. W. Niles, of this city; Mrs. May Sutton Bundy and Robert Kinsey, of California, playing Mrs. L. G. Morris and L. E. Mahan, of New York, and Miss Mary K. Browne, and W. M. Johnson, of California, opposed by Miss C. Gardner and H. Guild, a local team.

At Longwood the women played this forenoon in the invitation tournament begun yesterday, and in the afternoon the courts were given over to the singles and doubles, and junior championships in singles and doubles. The father and son doubles championships will be played later in the week.

If the men's doubles play is according to form the semi-final brackets on Friday should be filled by Richards and Tilden, Davis and Johnston, Williams and Washburn and the Kinsey brothers.

Yesterday Tilden and Richards easily defeated R. M. Grant and Cy Smith, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1. Johnston and Davis won a second round match from G. L. Wright, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1; Williams and Washburn reached the third round by eliminating Nier and Davies, 6-2, 7-5, 6-1 and the Kinsey brothers defeated Allen and Taylor, 6-2, 6-4, 7-5.

The necessity of the champion appearing in Chicago on Thursday will prevent his refereeing the Tendler-Friedman fight in this city tomorrow night.

OUT-OF-TOWN BOXERS DUE TONIGHT FOR BOUTS HERE

All-Star Show Scheduled at Phillies Ball Park

Each of the four out-of-town boxers scheduled to appear in the all-star show arranged by Promoters Herman Taylor and Bobby Gunnis at the Phillies ball park tomorrow night will be in town by 10 o'clock tonight. Sailor Friedman, of Chicago, was the advance guard, having breezed into Philadelphia more than a week ago and doing his training at a local gymnasium.

Johnny Dundee and Charley Ladoux, the Frenchman, will come over together from New York City, and George Chaney, the heavy hitter, will arrive from Baltimore.

Friedman is to go on in the star bout with Lew Tendler, local crack fighter. Dundee is to pair off with Joe Tiplitz, who has been in earnest training for this encounter.

Chaney will be opposed to Harry Kid Brown, who has prepared for this match, the most important of his career, with Tendler.

Ladoux is to put on his battle with Danny Kramer of this city. Kramer has proved himself the most terrific hitter of the present day bantams.

Each of these matches is scheduled for eight rounds, and the first bout will go on at 8 o'clock.

Amateur Sports

Carlisle Club, of West Philadelphia, is anxious to book games with all of the leading teams in the city with a view to a fall season. The club is located at 435 North Sixth street.

Andy Scholander, a Philadelphia team, want games. M. J. Lotka, 273 North Tenth street, is the contact.

Walton A. C., a first-class colored team, want games. Thomas Deard, 273 North Tenth street, is the contact.

Walter A. C., a first-class colored team, want games. E. A. Rambow, 981 North Fifth street, is the contact.

Walter A. C., a first-class colored team, want games. E. A. Rambow, 981 North Fifth street, is the contact.

Walter A. C., a first-class colored team, want games. E. A. Rambow, 981 North Fifth street, is the contact.

DECIDE SINGLE TARGETS IN GRAND AMERICAN

Amateurs and Pros Feature Day's Program at Chicago

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Today's events in the Grand American Handicap, trap shooting classic of the year, now in progress at the South Shore Country Club, were featured by the American amateur championship at single targets. This contest is looked upon by many to be of greater importance than the Grand American proper, because it is open only to State champions or runners-up. The winner is regarded as the champion of champions.

While the amateur event is in progress the American professional championship at single targets is to be held. Both are scheduled for the afternoon.

This morning competition in the American amateur championship at double targets was resumed. This event got under way yesterday, but owing to the large entry was not completed. The professional championship at double targets also started this morning. In both events contestants were shooting at fifty paces.

JACK DEMPSEY IN TOWN

Arrives Unheralded in Broad Street Station—Attends Children's Picnic

Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight boxer, arrived in Broad Street Station this afternoon at 1 o'clock for his first visit since defeating Georges Carpentier in Jersey City on July 2. Dempsey arrived unheralded, and greeted by only a few of his closest friends. He had been expected on the noon train, but wired that he had been detained in New York.

After his arrival Dempsey was hustled to a waiting automobile and was speeded out to Woodside Park, where he was the eyefore of some 500 youngsters brought to the park from Delaware County by James Dougherty for their annual picnic.

Immediately after the picnic Dempsey will board the Broadway Limited for Chicago where he will appear as a witness Thursday in the Tex Rickard movie case, which comes up for trial on that day. Rickard exhibited the picture of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight before a group of wounded soldiers in the Windy City and was arrested according to the law that prohibits the showing of fight pictures in any State other than the one in which the fight is held.

The necessity of the champion appearing in Chicago on Thursday will prevent his refereeing the Tendler-Friedman fight in this city tomorrow night.

BOXERS IGNORE ORDERS

Downey and Wilson Will Not Reach New York Before Tomorrow

New York, Aug. 23.—Tex Rickard, promoter of boxing extravaganza, received word that neither Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, nor his challenger, Bryan Downey, of Columbus, will reach this city before tomorrow night or Thursday. In failing to appear yesterday they ignored the instructions of both Rickard and members of the New Jersey Boxing Commission.

A telegram from Columbus stated that Downey had been delayed in leaving for New York because he had been unable to round up his sparring partners. Curiously enough, the same excuse was received from Johnny Wilson in Boston.

QUAKER CRICKETERS WIN

Phila. Pilgrims Defeat Essex Team in England

Brentwood, England, Aug. 23.—In a cricket game here between the Philadelphia Pilgrims and the Essex team, Essex was all out for 169 runs. The Philadelphians followed with 191 for four wickets. The high scorer was J. L. Evans, who was not out for 85.

McTigue Victor in Fourth

Montreal, Aug. 23.—Mike McTigue, of New York and Halifax, successfully defended his Canadian middleweight championship title here by knocking out George Robinson, of Boston, in the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round bout.

WILLIAM H. WANAMAKER

1217-19 CHESTNUT STREET

Medium-Weight Suits added to our

Half-Price Offer!

The call for them has depleted those with which we started this wonderful opportunity.

Only the very finest worsted suits, both in summer weights and medium weights (good for all-year-around wear), will be found in any or all price groups.

Final Clearance Palm Beach Suits $12.50 for Palm Beaches that were $20, $22.50 and $25

Any Mohair Suit, $16.50 Were $25, $30 and $35

You should buy several suits, as these prices are less than wholesale.

300 Suits to Sell for $25.00 All blue suits—serges, worsteds, } $30 twills and flannels, at.....

WILLIAM H. WANAMAKER 1217-19 CHESTNUT STREET

TILDEN OBJECTS TO BLIND DRAW

World's Champion Would Divide Stars in Systematic Way for Tourney Competition

By GRANTLAND RICE

Let the Old World chant its troubles As it whimpers in its sores, Where the money war is raging And the gates of sorrow blow, As I sail into the harbor Of an ever-welcome port Where I revel down the summer Through the golden fields of sport.

There are shadows on the grasslands And the clouds are none too thin. There is sorrow in the windward And the sea is full of sin. But the summer skies are purple And for Barnes and Jock-the-Hutch As they swing the flashy masher With a par-producing touch.

There are shadows on the grasslands And the clouds are none too thin. There is sorrow in the windward And the sea is full of sin. But the summer skies are purple And for Barnes and Jock-the-Hutch As they swing the flashy masher With a par-producing touch.

THE current, or fiscal upheaval for the turf tennis championship of America may present an upheaval of noteworthy quality.

But, unless the tide shifts suddenly, it will again be a battle of the Bills—Big Bill Tilden, from the East, and Little Bill Johnston, from the West.

These were the two who fought out the issue at Forest Hills in 1919 and Little Bill won.

They were again the pair who took charge of the spotlight in 1920—where Big Bill won.

At Philadelphia they will again stand as the predominant figures, until one or both are driven from the field. And it will hardly be both, notwithstanding the superior quality of earnest rivals, who are now on hand.

The two Bills have been the Nip-and-Tuck Twins of Tennis for the last two years, and the gala campaign of 1921 will hardly change the order.

Male and Female

HOW many male tennis players are there who could defeat Mlle. Lenglen? How many male golfers are there in America who would win from Miss Cecel Leitch?

The female of the species is deadlier than the male in many lines, but how about competitive sport?

The argument grows apace, picking up fever as it hurries along. Tennis is harder to figure, being a sport where one person's play depends upon the strength of a rival.

But in golf a score is a score. Miss Leitch over a standard course would average around 80. This would leave her with an official handicap of 6 among the men, or somewhere among the second 400 or 500 in America alone.

There are many, many thousands of male golfers to whom she could concede nearly a million to pick from there are at least 500 men who could beat her on the majority of occasions, despite the fact that her 74 in the French championship on that one day might have beaten Evans, Outmet or Jones. At her best she is easily capable of beating a star who is slightly off. But we are speaking here of the long route and the average.

For the Future

THE Female Division (along for Opposite Sex) might easily some day turn out a champion on a par with the best in the masculine field.

But woman's place in sport has been too recent an adventure, to permit of any such present chance.

It is conceivable that super-Suzanne Lenglen might have the speed and dash of a Tilden or a Johnston—or that a super-Cecel Leitch might stalk around a championship course in 75 or 72.

The latter event should come first. Alexa Sterling had a 75 over the testing Hamilton course in the last Canadian championship and Cecel Leitch had a 74 in June at Fontainebleau. But these scores were exceptional departures from the normal and conventional 80.

Given a few more years of athletic development and the masculine realm may suddenly be stunned some day by a female champion good enough to wrest the laurel from an agonized male brow.

Copyright, 1921. All rights reserved.

MELHORN BREAKS RECORD

Young Shreveport Professional Covers Oakwood Course in 56

Cleveland, Aug. 23.—Playing superbly during the entire round, Willie Melhorn, the young professional of the Shreveport Country Club, broke all local records on the Oakwood course here with a curl of 69, having a 25 out and a 31 in, during a practice work-out preliminary to the Western open golf tournament, which opens Wednesday.

TENNIS STILL RULED BY TWINS OF GAME

Two Bills—Johnston and Tilden—Have Dominated Courts for Two Years—Favorites for Finals in National Singles Championships

By GRANTLAND RICE

Let the Old World chant its troubles As it whimpers in its sores, Where the money war is raging And the gates of sorrow blow, As I sail into the harbor Of an ever-welcome port Where I revel down the summer Through the golden fields of sport.

There are shadows on the grasslands And the clouds are none too thin. There is sorrow in the windward And the sea is full of sin. But the summer skies are purple And for Barnes and Jock-the-Hutch As they swing the flashy masher With a par-producing touch.

There are shadows on the grasslands And the clouds are none too thin. There is sorrow in the windward And the sea is full of sin. But the summer skies are purple And for Barnes and Jock-the-Hutch As they swing the flashy masher With a par-producing touch.

THE current, or fiscal upheaval for the turf tennis championship of America may present an upheaval of noteworthy quality.

But, unless the tide shifts suddenly, it will again be a battle of the Bills—Big Bill Tilden, from the East, and Little Bill Johnston, from the West.

These were the two who fought out the issue at Forest Hills in 1919 and Little Bill won.

They were again the pair who took charge of the spotlight in 1920—where Big Bill won.

At Philadelphia they will again stand as the predominant figures, until one or both are driven from the field. And it will hardly be both, notwithstanding the superior quality of earnest rivals, who are now on hand.

The two Bills have been the Nip-and-Tuck Twins of Tennis for the last two years, and the gala campaign of 1921 will hardly change the order.

Male and Female

HOW many male tennis players are there who could defeat Mlle. Lenglen? How many male golfers are there in America who would win from Miss Cecel Leitch?

The female of the species is deadlier than the male in many lines, but how about competitive sport?

The argument grows apace, picking up fever as it hurries along. Tennis is harder to figure, being a sport where one person's play depends upon the strength of a rival.

But in golf a score is a score. Miss Leitch over a standard course would average around 80. This would leave her with an official handicap of 6 among the men, or somewhere among the second 400 or 500 in America alone.

There are many, many thousands of male golfers to whom she could concede nearly a million to pick from there are at least 500 men who could beat her on the majority of occasions, despite the fact that her 74 in the French championship on that one day might have beaten Evans, Outmet or Jones. At her best she is easily capable of beating a star who is slightly off. But we are speaking here of the long route and the average.

For the Future

THE Female Division (along for Opposite Sex) might easily some day turn out a champion on a par with the best in the masculine field.

But woman's place in sport has been too recent an adventure, to permit of any such present chance.

It is conceivable that super-Suzanne Lenglen might have the speed and dash of a Tilden or a Johnston—or that a super-Cecel Leitch might stalk around a championship course in 75 or 72.

The latter event should come first. Alexa Sterling had a 75 over the testing Hamilton course in the last Canadian championship and Cecel Leitch had a 74 in June at Fontainebleau. But these scores were exceptional departures from the normal and conventional 80.

Given a few more years of athletic development and the masculine realm may suddenly be stunned some day by a female champion good enough to wrest the laurel from an agonized male brow.

Copyright, 1921. All rights reserved.

CY WILLIAMS SPOILS BIG HURLING DUEL

Hits One Into Broad Street While Winters and Ponder Are Battling

Two Casualties in Game

When it comes to hurling duels that have a fascination for the old dyed-in-the-wool fan, yesterday's heroic twelve-inning battle on the Hump must not be forgotten when the stove league gets into executive session some time in November.

Two castoffs, Ponder, traded to the Cubs by the Pirates for Davey Robertson, and Jess Winters, our latest acquisition from the Braves, 10 to 8, while the Giants were being whitewashed by the Cardinals, 6 to 0. The Pirates hit McQuillen and Scott, two stars of the Boston staff, six times, sixteen bingles ringing off their ashes.

The Braves did not prove weaklings with the stick, getting thirteen off Hamilton and Zinn, both of whom were knocked out of the box before the game was over. The Braves scored all their runs in the last four innings when the score stood nine to nothing going into the last half of the seventh.

Homers Beat Giants

Pat Shea started for the Giants yesterday against the Cards and was lambasted from the start. Four runs in the first inning and two more in the fifth, and the former minor league star shined the lumber. The home run stars of the Cards were accountable for all the damage. McHenry hit a four-bagger in the first with two of his pals on the sacks, while Hornsby, in the fifth, connected for a round tripper with one fellow player on base.

Kreuger's home run in the second with two of his pals on failed to do any more than tie the score with the Reds, and the Dodgers flustering in the latter innings fell, 7 to 5. Calore and Laque were the opposing hurlers and both were hit for ten safeties. The defeat of the Dodgers enabled the Cards to creep up a game in the fight for fourth place.

The Indians lost a close one to the Red Sox in the ninth, while the Yanks were winning with ease from the Browns, and only one-and-a-half games separate the two contenders this morning. The Sox counted two runs off Morton in the ninth. The Indians came back with one in their half, but it wasn't enough.

Eight runs in the sixth off a couple of Brown twirlers made it easy for Mays, and the St. Louisans were never in it. The final figures read 10 to 1. In the other game, the White Sox humbled the Senators.

J. Hoover Seeks Games

The Northwest Professionals have next Saturday and Sunday open away from home. The team also is looking for a game with J. Hoover, Columbia 620, for this afternoon.

Home-Run Hitters in Games Yesterday

Player	Team	Home Runs
Hornsby	Cardinals	1
McHenry	Reds	1
R. Meusel	Yankees	1
C. Williams	Phillies	1
Kreuger	Dodgers	1
TOTALS TO DATE
National League		392
American League		371
Total		733
American League (1920)		866
National League (1920)		261
Total		659

HARTMAN VICTOR IN HOWELL BOUT

Former Amateur Boxer Scores Two Knockdowns at Eleventh Street Club

IS GAINING IN WEIGHT

By LOUIS H. JAFFE

E. Earl Hartman, of South Philadelphia, went to the post for the fourth time since starting professional punching proivities, and added one more victory to his string at the Eleventh Street Arena last night. This time it was Frankie Howell, of the U. S. Navy, and a Philadelphia product whose name has been improving. Of his fourteen opponents to date, eight of them have been knocked out.

Last night it looked as if Hartman was about to score another knock-out when he crossed his right in the second round. Howell went down, but he regained his equilibrium at the count of eight. Again in the third round of eight, followed by a right cross topped the seller for a similar toll.

Hartman displayed variety of punches, work and a splendid left jab. He showed a stiff left jab, but a hook with the same mitt possessed more power, while his best blow was a right cross. Howell fared in the later rounds, and made Earl open up with most of his speed.

Starting as a 122-pounder in the professional field last fall, it is probable that Hartman will have developed into a lightweight by the time the 1921-22 season gets under way. Last night he tipped the beam at 127.

Harry Kilburn, of South Philadelphia, was a winner in six rounds over Jack Diamond. Johnny Clark defeated Battling Stinger, Benny Bass knocked out Frankie Kilburn with a right to the chin in the fourth, and Al Rice stopped Joe McGoldrick in the fourth.

Harry Cross refereed all of the matches and showed that he was improving gradually in this capacity. He will prove a good third man in the ring for any of the clubs this fall.

J. Hoover Seeks Games

The Northwest Professionals have next Saturday and Sunday open away from home. The team also is looking for a game with J. Hoover, Columbia 620, for this afternoon.

Let Fatima smokers tell you

Ask them at the Tournaments

At every big title contest, a poll of pockets would reveal Fatimas in extraordinary number—thus proving once more the excellence of this unusual blend of fine tobaccos. Spectators, and players too, agree that

Nothing else will do

FATIMA CIGARETTES

TWENTY for 25¢ -but taste the difference!

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

For Men Only
who have missed
Shoe Lacing Hooks

Shoes with Lacing Hooks can be bought from Up-to-date Dealers.

Insist on having what you want

TOPS ANYTHING BEFORE

Four—Real Star Bouts—Four
DANNY KRAMER vs.
CHARLEY LEDOUX (8)
GEORGE K. O. CHANEY vs.
HARRY KID BROWN (8)
JOHNNY DUNDEE vs.
JOE TIPLITZ (8)
LEW TENDLER vs.
SAILOR FRIEDMAN (8)
Phillies' Park, Wed. Night,
August 24

Tickets, $1, $2, $3 and $5, at Scott's cafe, 515 Chestnut, or at park tomorrow night. See The Show of Shows.

WILLIAM H. WANAMAKER
1217-19 CHESTNUT STREET